Our first full moon,
Shining as a halo
to all untiring steps,
Yes, we may sit on a hilltop
Looking to life below or ponder the mountain ahead.

MR. BELSHA

MR. WEHMEIER

There's a bit of discussion
going on around school
The kids are always questioning things: their projected roles in life.
They asked me, "What's the best gift education can leave us?"
I answered knowledge, of course.
It's knowledge which sets our way in life.
"No, no", they cried, "We thought it was sensitivity."
Perhaps.
Yes, I like the word.

And it was only yesterday
We felt secure
In our mama's arms
Curdled tenderly,
Under soft,
Warm blankets.
But, we've grown a little,
Quite a few years older.
Only to find new ideas,
More questions
And adults, human.

Tomahawk Times

... Works To Reflect JHS

The monthly TOMAHAWK TIMES broke some chains this past year allowing it to move ahead at a rapid pace. The first chain it broke was one of timidity and censorship; the staff this year was resolved to print the truth and present things accurately, and, going a step beyond, present its editorial perspective without fear and paranoia. Secondly, it broke the chain of complacency. The editorial staff was annoyed at the juvenile and shallow material of the past, and, never being satisfied with itself, attempted to fill its pages with more solid and far-ranging material. They were attempting to trace the heartbeat of the high school with articulation and integrity.

Senior Chorus

The senior choir has a diversity of vocal-oriented accomplishments behind them, led by Jennings chorus director Dr. Phillips, who is responsible for the guidance of all of the high school's fine singers. The senior choir was involved in a Channel 11 Christmas program in 1971, one day tours to Greenville College, Illinois, and S. I. U., tours of various high schools in the area, singing in an honoring night for former Jennings superintendent Otis A. See. A highlight of the past Christmas concert was their liturgical drama using the Great Music of Christmas. Their old-fashioned melodrama at the ice cream supper was described by Dr. Phillips in the same way he would certainly sum up the choir of '73 itself: "A success!"

Junior Chorus

A selected-auditioned choir that serves as training singers, the junior choir is looking forward to their senior year. They have participated in one day tours to the junior high schools in the district, sang at the fall concert and ice cream supper. A special feature at the fall concert was their presentation of a poem by JHS teacher Timotheus Carson, "The Mighty Mississippi."

Sophomore Chorus

The sophomore choir is composed of first year singers from the various junior high schools, and are experiencing their initial collective vocalizing under Dr. Phillips. They have performed at all the concerts and presented programs for the Jennings Mothers Club and St. Louis international airport. A special feature at the fall concert by them was an excerpt from a folk opera "Speak Up".

Girls Glee Club

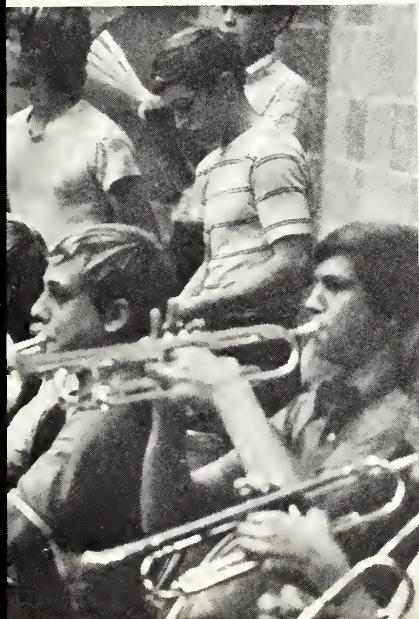

The Girls Glee Club is a new group of students--all female--interested in being a part of the school's music program. They have performed at all concerts and participated in the Christmas caroling at Stix River Roads. They, like all the choirs, participated in the spring's 'Night on Broadway'.

Girls Athletic Association

Promotes Sportsmanship

G.A.A. sponsors a variety of activities designed to help the girls to exercise leadership qualities, to develop patience and tolerance, and to learn fair play. It also provides an opportunity to make new friends, to extend good relations with other schools, and to find oneself through active participation. The fall sports' program includes tennis and hockey. As the season changes, basketball, gymnastics, volleyball, and swimming become popular. To end the school year, there is softball and a new feature to the G.A.A. program, girls' track.

Student Council

Supports Worthy Cause

The student council is student government; it allows the students to voice their ideas and opinions. The council's activities try to encourage good citizenship and promote leadership. The organization supports worthy fund-raising projects such as the one for the paralyzed player, Herman Davis. In addition, it sponsors and directs the homecoming program.

National Honor Society Welcomes Members

The new NHS members were formally initiated on February 22. This organization, unlike other JHS organizations, selects its members. The NHS emphasizes qualities of leadership, character, service and academic proficiency. Throughout the year, the society provides ushers and its services for various school functions.

Future Nurses of America

Enjoy Annual Christmas Party

The Christmas party is given for the special children at Northview Elementary School. Another F.N.A. attraction is the spring field trip. These activities attempt to provide an insight into the career of nursing.

Future Teachers of America

Investigate Open Classroom Teaching

The Future Teachers of America have an organization involving a wide spectrum of orientation into the roles and methods of teaching. The FTA's activities include: investigation of the concept of open classroom teaching, a Christmas coffee for the faculty, a visit to an area college with other FTA groups, a discussion of cadet teaching, and promotion of funds for an FTA scholarship to be awarded to the outstanding senior member.

Provide Popcorn

The FHA members meet once a month to plan activities. During the winter months, these girls sell popcorn at home basketball games and wrestling meets. In the spring, the group takes a day off for a field trip.

Future Homemakers of America

Speech Club Competes with Other Schools

The JHS students interested in improving their oral skills join together to form the speech club. The members meet regularly to plan and practice for the tournaments. The organization competes interscholastically in such areas as poetry, prose, dramatic interpretation, and duet acting. These activities are designed to be both educational and enjoyable.

French Club

Tours St. Genevieve

The Jennings High French Club meet regularly throughout the year to plan French-accented activities. Among these are: a French Christmas party, a bake sale, a progressive French dinner, attendance of a French play, a skating party, and a field trip to the town of St. Genevieve in the spring.

German Club

Plans Progressive Dinner

Members from the JHS German classes organize into the German Club with a range of activities both German-slanted and some just fun-slanted. A progressive dinner with German food highlights the events. Other activities include: doughnut sales at home basketball games, discussions with the German exchange students, Christmas caroling at a German old folks home, and attendance of ice-skating and soccer games.

Thespian Club

Reflects Interest in Dramatics

The Thespian Club is a national organization. Membership into the club depends on the student's accumulation of Thespian points. These points can be earned by participating in an all-school production. Actors, as well as members of the stagecrew, are awarded Thespian points according to their amount of participation.

OFFICERS (LEFT TO RIGHT): Jim Ciolek, Steve Morrow, Marie Furlong.

Library Club Assists Students

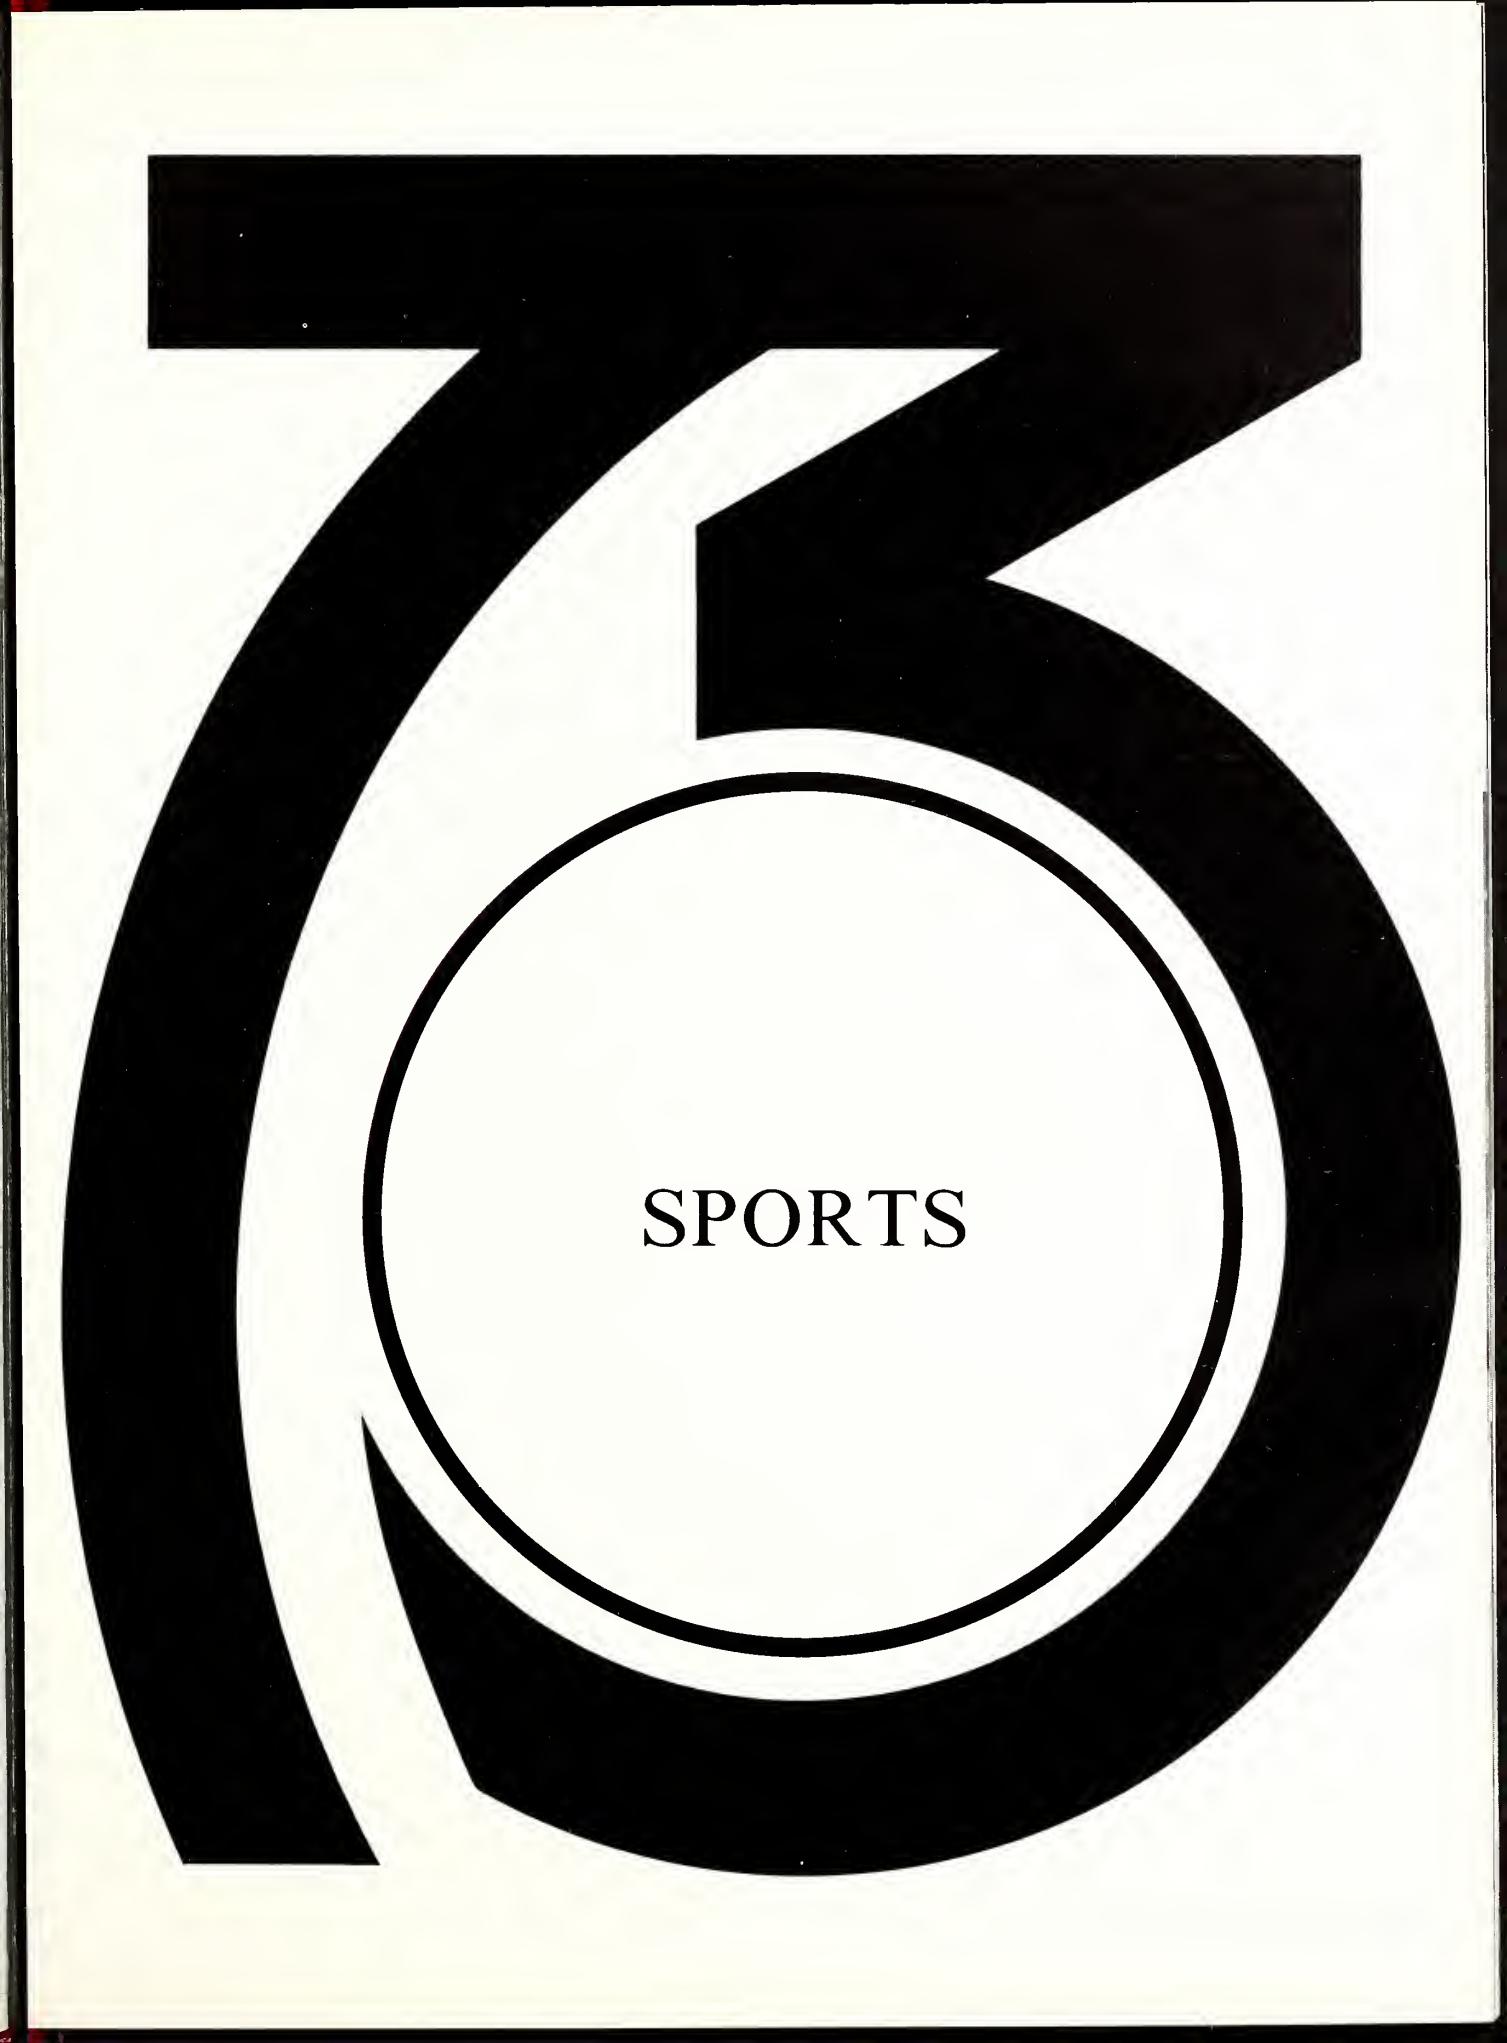

The Library Club, consists of a small number of students who volunteer their services and assistance. They help students to locate books and materials. Also, they assist Mrs. Brinkman in library duties such as alphabetizing and checking out magazines and books and keeping the card catalogues up-to-date.

Photography Club Makes Appearance

A new addition to the list of JHS organizations is the Photography Club. The only prerequisite, other than a small fee, is an interest in taking and developing pictures. This small group, under the direction of Mr. Crouch and Mr. Irving, has had a good start and hopefully it will attract greater attention in the future.

No wins, nine losses...injuries...a "character-building" year...a "rebuilding" season... "we went down fighting" (That's for sure.). All the cliches could fit but still seem a bit trite. What exactly do you say about a year like 1972?

It was a year that I will never forget. Not because of the won-lost record, but because of ten seniors who made this past season an enjoyable experience. Winning in athletics is always important. It's one of the main objectives in any athletic contest. But, football and coaching involve so much more than just winning.

Football is watching a handful of young sophomores mature in three years into young men. It's watching those same young men get up off the floor each week to come back and try again and again. It's watching a season of expectation begin in early August and end in violent frustration on a cold, bleak November afternoon. It's watching, striving, hoping, and coaching for victory only to fail each succeeding week.

Failure is never easy to accept but it is an especially difficult task for the senior who, unlike the coach, cannot simply say "Wait 'till next year". For the senior, next year is now. If this season held sadness and disappointment, it was for that reason.

It's sad but true that too often in our society, the "scoreboard" of whatever type, is the only gauge of success. But to truly be a "winner" involves so much more than just the final score. I've had the privilege this past season of helping coach a group of seniors who were "winners" every week regardless of the final score. For that privilege, I simply say "Thank you" to them. I don't think that we will see their like around here again for quite sometime.

Varsity Basketball

14-11 Record

Our Basketball Warriors had a fine season this year, playing exciting ball all the way. They were crowned champs in the Wentzville Tournament, winning first place by upsetting 3 seeded teams in 3 nights. Even with the loss of high-scoring co-captain, Marc Stephenson with a broken ankle for the last month of the season, the Warriors finished strong, winning their last two season games and taking the semi-finalist trophy in the State Regionals at Hazelwood.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Record 3-15

In view of the season's record, an old adage comes to mind, winning isn't everything. To be sure, hard work and honest effort in the face of a far-away goal can only be commended. Though none of us will be putting a trophy, perseverance and discipline never tarnish, even against the will of time.

During the 1972-73 wrestling season, the "Wrestling Warriors" compiled their best overall record in the past three years. The Varsity Warriors ended with a 9-4 record while the J. V. Squad finished with a 7-5 mark. Co-captains, Dave Ernst, Kevin Webb, and Charlie Pitlyk, as well as Dennis Gaddis, all finished with winning records for the year. These boys will be difficult to replace because of their ability and because of their great leadership, enthusiasm, and dedication.

(Absent-Dave Harris, Mark Werner)

The "swimming warriors" have broken the ice this season by qualifying Chris Pfuhl, for the state meet at Columbia, Missouri. We hope to continue this trend.

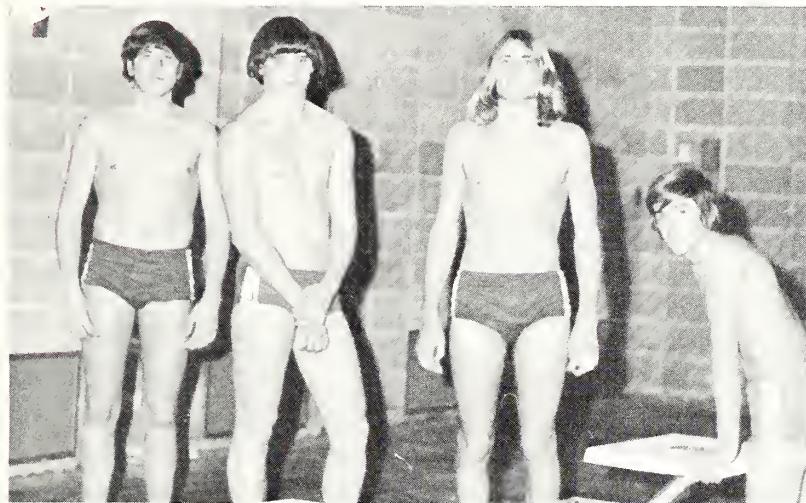

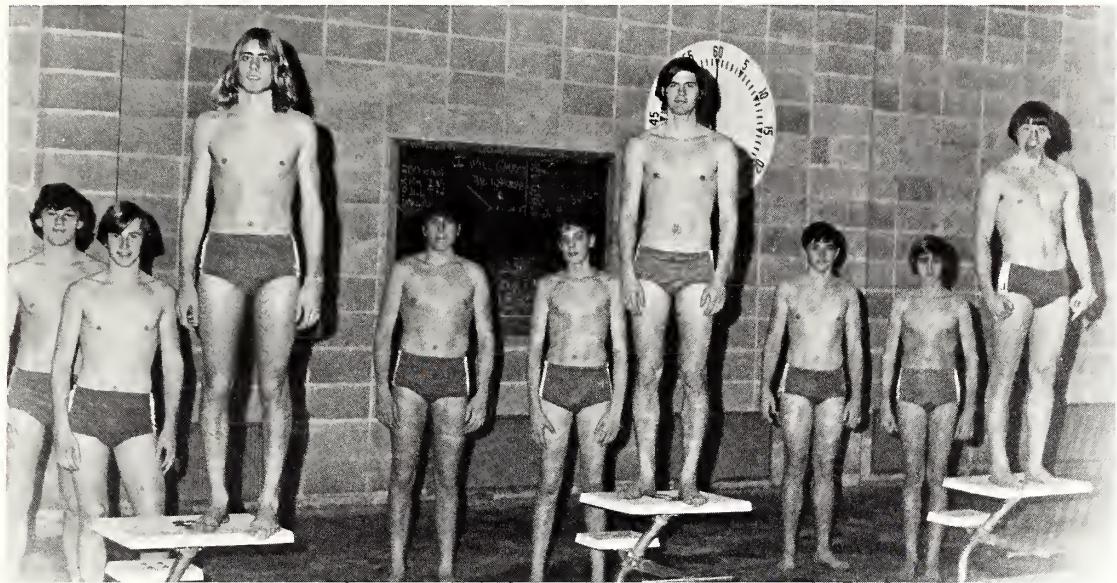

Our Varsity record was six wins and eight losses in the dual meets and no wins and one loss in tri-meets. Several of our losses were just by inches and decided in the last race. In the conference meet held at Berkeley, we placed fifth. There has definitely been an improvement over the last two seasons.

Our Junior Varsity Swimmers had a fine season by winning three meets and losing only one.

We will lose five seniors who have been an asset to our team they are: Ken Bussell, Vern Nelson, Dave Ott, Pat Shelton, and Norm Wiele.

WISPS

Out in a wide field,
I was hunting rabbits
in the cool,
grey morning.
The grass was sifting
dry in my nose;
So, I felt relieved
By a growing mist
beginning to rise
from the meadow.
Patches of moods
Were seen in the
calming wisps;
My ashen dreams were
ready to dance,
Friends came to greet me, and
All I had to do was see.

"Meet Me In St. Louis": ... Turn of The Century Entertainment

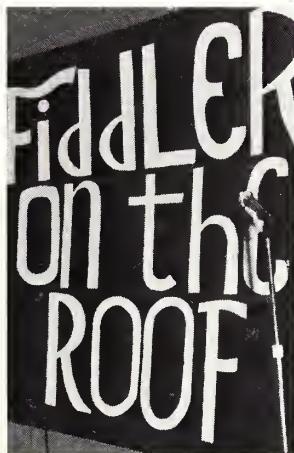

The fall stage production was the light comedy in three acts that concerned the hectic life of 1904 St. Louis family; cast in the leads were Sue Scheve, Debbie Wedemeir, Steve Morrow and Ellie Du-Vall, with Mr. Mahon again directing. The old fashioned flavor was retained by musical numbers between the acts.

Night on Broadway ... is a Success

This special event covered top hits from Broadway from the last 60 years. Some of the many musicals that were performed were "Carousel," "Oklahoma," "Showboat," "West Side Story," "Fiddler-on the Roof," and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown." This enjoyable evening also contained such specialties as a barbershop quartet, a Shirley Temple routine, and a Peanuts comic strip presentation. The audience thoroughly enjoyed this fine performance.

by Sue Scheve and Walt Jaschek

"Let me make one thing clear. Those who have had a chance for four years and can not produce peace should not be given another chance."

Though this may sound like something that a Democratic candidate would say to regarding the present administration, this statement was actually made by Richard Nixon, on Oct. 9, 1968, as a final plea to the American people to elect him to the office of President of the United States.

Principal

He stood before us
In his black-tattered robe
Spilling and drooping about his knees.
The thread-bares
And stitchings were worn with the years,
Mildly frail with memories.
It was the old teacher's last year
Here at the School,
As it very well was ours.
The last of a long line,
We were to finish marking a roadside milestone
Together.
He walked to the podium,
Humbly shuffling with his furthered age.
Tiny, square-rimmed glasses
Rested, comfortably, on his scholarly nose.
He nervously flirted with his new, gold-watch
Running it through his fingers
Like wisdom on a chain.

"The past, my friends," he began,
After a soft, low-keyed cough,
"the past adds a certain intensity to the color of life; it gives us depth."

"Just as in a well: (with the wish and luck for us)
No matter how far it is dug,
It takes both the water and the bottom
To give it depth,
One cannot separate
The other.

And, now,
That I've grown a few years older
Not many mind you
I've found peace and serenity in Just living and remembering.

"Yes", he said, a smile and a tear,
"Old rules
Have never built better fools."
With this he left, and we.
Our persona grata.

Not
to a real fantastic guy.
Good luck your the most Senior year. God Bless out of it.
